

You Inspire Me

*You inspire me to be free
To truly be me
You inspire me if you only knew
You inspire me by you
Just being you
You are beauty, as sure as my eyes can see
You are beauty, far more than skin deep
You are beauty, without a doubt
You are beauty, inside and out
You amaze me with your conversation
You amaze me, God's creation
You amaze me, beyond explanation
You are the hope for a better world
Hope for every boy and every girl
You are hope for their sorrow
Hope for a better tomorrow
You inspire me, to fly free
Escape captivity, by any means
You inspire me to have dreams
You inspire me to do things
You excite me,...MUCH MORE.*
